*Strange thing, memory.
Sometimes it tricks us.
Sometimes it enslaves us.
Sometimes it inspires us.
But without memory,
our human quality would vanish."*

J.L. Zwingle
President of Park College 1953

It is without apologies or regrets that I have tried to give back to the students of Park College the 1971-72 school year.
I hope that it has caught a small piece of memory for you-

To all Park Alumni whose legacy to the school was a brother, sister, or a friend;

To those who have flowed with the times rather than clinging to the past and whose faith in themselves were able to make, for themselves and others, a little happiness and piece of mind;

To those who have found something valid in their lives,

this book is dedicated

To live is to be involved with people and that is very delicate.
But you can't live in the fear of hurting or dread the pain of living.

To love is to be involved with people
and that is very delicate.
but you can't love in the fear of hurting or dread the pain of loving.

There's no place in this world where I'll belong when I'm gone

I won't know the right from the wrong
when I'm gone

You won't find me singing this song
when I'm gone

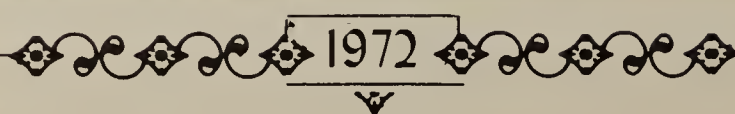

So I guess I'll have to do it while I'm here

Life is a heavy thing these days.
 But, then, December is always cold.
 That dark sign . . .
 that brown death upon the leaves . . .
 seems I look at the ground more than the sky
 now.

Maybe it's because I know that a lot of birds won't make the Southern scene or that a lot of babies die in Lexington Avenue drains.
 Maybe it's just that my cat wondered off . . .
 two days ago . . .
 and it's raining.

GThomas Widler

1972

I am waiting to get some intimations of immortality
 by recollecting my early childhood and I am waiting for the green mornings to come again youth's dumb green fields to come back again
 and I am waiting
 for some strains of unpremeditated art to shake my typewriter and I am waiting to write the great indelible poem
 and I am waiting for the last long careless rapture and I am perpetually waiting for the fleeing lovers on the Grecian Urn to catch each other up at last and embrace
 and I am waiting
 perpetually and forever a renaissance of wonder (excerpts from "I Am Waiting" by Ferlinghetti

 c. 1958 New Directions Pub.)
